

SHIPPING AGENCY

EMU Lines in its effort to cater to the large clientele of shipping lines of which they are agents in India has established an AGENCY DIVISION SERVICES which exclusively looks after the interests of the various principals that we represent.

We represented Norasia in Northern India for over 5 years before they ventured on their own. Today we represent Bay Lines, O.T. Africa, Trans-Asia Line ...

Our specific interests lie in generating the maximum revenue for our principals, ensuring timely and safe delivery of their import cargoes and judicious turn around of inventory in the form of prompt export bookings. Following an efficient reporting systems we undertake timely remittances of surplus in accordance to the very liberalized regulations now prevalent in India.

Agency services are being gradually developed keeping in view its steady improvement over the years. Coming from our perfect relations with port and customs authorities, we can offer and guarantee excellent services to any ship-owner and vessel within a reasonable price.

With its own professional offices spread all over India, EMU Lines is ready to take up the challenge of representing any shipping line / operation with ease and competence expected out of a highly motivated and disciplined team.

Our state of art software will be an added advantage for shipment tracking.

EMU Lines is a move towards total shipping logistics and reliability.
